Organisational Structure of the Directorate General of Mines Safety

@3382-A. SHRI SUNIL BASU RAY:
SHRI RAMNARYAN GOSWAMI:

Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) what is the present organisational structure of the office of the Directorate General of Mines Safety;

(b) whether it suits the expending mining activities; and

(c) if not, whether Government have a scheme to modernise it, to remove its structural imbalances, to infuse dynamism in it and to enable it to function independently of the mining companies?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P A. SANGMA): (a) The Directorate General of Mines Safety Organisation with its headquarters at Dhanbad is headed by the Director General of Mines Safety. The entire country is divided into six zones, each headed by a Deputy Director General of Mines Safety. There are 3 to 4 Regional Offices in each zone. A Regional Office is under the charge of a Director of Mines Safety. There are 21 Regional Offices. There are also 6 Sub-Regional Offices which are situated in important areas of mining activities which are away from Regional Offices. Sub-Regional Offices are under the charge of Deputy Directors of Mines Safety.

(b) and (c) A review of the role and functions of the Directorate General of Mines Safety was made by a Committee headed by Shri J. G. Kumaramangalam during the year 1981-82 As a result a Cadre Review was undertaken to strengthen the organisation and additional posts were created at different levels of the inspection cadre of Directorate General of Mines Safety in 1986. The scales of pay of the officers of the Directorate General of Mines Safety were also revised in 1983 and were later further enhanced on the basis of the recommendations of the 4th Pay Commission.

Workers participation in Management

@@3382-B. SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that inspite of the directions issued by Government to appoint workers on the Board of Directors in various public sector undertakings the same have not been implemented so far; and

(b) what action Government have taken to appoint workers on the Board of Directors in public sector undertakings?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) and (b) The Resolution of 30th December, 1983, notified by the Ministry of Labour, regarding the Scheme of Employees Participation in Management provides that as regards participation at the board level, the administrative Ministry| Department concerned (in charge of the undertaking) will draw in consultation with the Department of Labour, a
